bio:

name: Antonio

surname: Di Stefano

description: |

Hello there! I am an Italian dev living in London. I've been a product dev for quite a while now and I would love to transition into core engineering. Not just a dev though, I am also a big foodie! I love cooking, eating different foods and experiment with ingredients and ideas! I also have quite a broad array of various interests, including learning weird facts and reading comics and mangas.

jobs:

- company: eBay

roles: ["Full-stack software engineer", "Security Champion"]

duration: 1+ years

description: |

I am currently part of the Shipping team in eBay and I work with pretty much anything shipping related! I am also working on a few other CI/CD related projects as well as some security work, both mentoring as a Champion and doing some research on our systems. I have also contributed to some systems that are part of our core infrastructure.

- company: Soldo

roles: ["Software engineer", "Project manager"]

duration: 3 years

description: |

Soldo is a B2B card issuer with a focus on post-transaction. There I worked both as a developer as well as a PM during the last year, with a focus on BI/data-science initiatives.

education:

- school: ELIS College

duration: 2 years

description: |

ELIS College is a professional school with a focus on hands-on experience, embedding us from the get go in various hands-on experiences and projects with well-known companies in the area.
